

From: Ricky Musci
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/20 12:28pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I feel the current Microsoft settlement in no way deals with the problems of their monopoly. This is barely even a light slap on the wrist. As an American, I care about quality in the products I use. Microsofts total dominance in a number of fields gives them a license to ignore quality. They have no competition, so they have no need to improve their products. Please reconsider the Microsoft settlement. It ignores the consumer and feeds an unreliable company.

Ricky Musci
System Administrator
The Nautilus Institute
(510) 295-6119